WARRANT (Civil)

(Wisconsin Statutes 818.02 & 818.03)

Petitioner

and

CASE # _____

Respondent

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN to any law enforcement officer --- GREETINGS:

Based on the verified petition attached to this warrant and based on an examination of the file in this case and the support records furnished by the Clerk of Courts, I find that reasonable cause exists to arrest

For failure to comply with an order for child support or maintenance, in violation of sec. 818.02(1)(e).

For failure to appear for a hearing, despite having been served with notice of the hearing, as shown by returns of service in the record, in violation of sec. 818.02(1)(f).

For failure to appear for a hearing to set or revise support, or to determine paternity. Subject of arrest was not served but court has found that due diligence to serve was exercised and petitioner cannot effect service of process by any further efforts. Warrant is authorized under 818.02(1)(f).

NOW, THEREFORE, YOU ARE COMMANDED to forthwith apprehend the subject person and bring him/her before this branch of the Circuit Court or before the Family Court Commissioner, Room 707, Milwaukee County Courthouse, to answer to the charge of failure to support (civil contempt pursuant to Ch. 767 and 785) or failure to appear (civil contempt under sec. 785), or both, if applicable.

The subject person may post cash bail in the sum of $ _____, or a property bond in such amount, or a PR bond in the sum of $ _____, to assure attendance in court.

Dated Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on _____, 199.
