Other Orders:

Annual Adjustment Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 767.33, this child support order may be adjusted annually beginning in _____. The adjustment will be made ONLY if the party receiving support files a stipulation of both parties to the adjustment OR files a motion for implementation of annual adjustment because the party paying support refuses to provide income information or refuses to stipulate to the appropriate adjustment. The effective date of the adjustment shall be the first day of the first month following the date the stipulation is signed by the commissioner or the service of the motion. The adjustment shall be based on a change in the payer's "gross income available for child support" as defined in Wis. Admin. Code, as evidenced by the payer's tax returns, supporting documentation, proof of all non-taxed income and any other evidence of "gross income available for child support." The percentage to be applied, until further order of the court, is _____%.

Exchange of Tax Returns Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 767.33(1)(c), the parties shall exchange copies of state and federal income tax returns, including copies of all schedules and attachments as well as proof of all non-taxed income. This exchange of information shall be done no later than April 15 of each year, commencing April 15, _____. The exchange shall be done in person or by US Mail.
